

An Aisling

CONTRACT OF SALE

Thank you for your purchase of a Rhodesian Ridgeback from An Aisling. This is an agreement between Susan Rougeau (Breeder) and _____ (Buyer), for the sale of a Rhodesian Ridgeback puppy from the breeding of the following two dogs: (Dam), AKC#, (Sire), AKC#, for the price of $_____.

The Conditions of this Sale are as Follows:

The Buyer accepts the responsibility for caring for this puppy (dog) and providing for its welfare. The Buyer agrees that this puppy (dog) will never be sold, leased or given to any pet shop, animal shelter, research laboratory or similar facility.

Buyer's puppy (dog) has been selectively bred for health and good temperament. The Buyer agrees to follow the Breeder's instructions on care, housing, diet, treatment and health. The Buyer agrees that his/her puppy (dog) will always receive prompt, good medical care. The Buyer agrees to establish a booster vaccination program and heartworm preventative program with their veterinarian on their first visit. The Breeder has already supplied the first puppy shot and at least one worming to the puppy (dog).

The Breeder guarantees that this puppy (dog) is presently free of any life threatening diseases and is currently up to date on his/her vaccinations/worming. Breeder recommends that the Buyer have the puppy (dog) examined by a licensed Veterinarian of the Buyer's choice who is familiar with the Rhodesian Ridgeback in order to certify the health of said puppy (dog), within 72 hours of acceptance (Sundays & Holidays excluded) . The Breeder will not be responsible for any Veterinarian cost. The Breeder agrees if the puppy (dog) is found to have any life threatening diseases, a veterinarian certificate describing the problem must be sent to the Breeder. We retain the right to a second opinion by our own veterinarian and in the case of contradicting results; findings of the latter will prevail.

If the puppy (dog) dies or is euthanasia within the 72-hour period prior to being examined by a licensed veterinarian, then a death certificate must accompany the veterinarian's report. This would all be sent to the Breeder. The Buyer is then entitled to select another puppy of equal value and quality. Should the Buyer fail to take the puppy to a licensed Veterinarian within the 72-hour period, then this contract of sale is void.

Should there be a circumstance where a replacement puppy is necessary, then the Buyer may chose a replacement puppy (of equal value/quality and of the same sex) from any litters, subject to availability, paying the difference in price if Buyer desires a more expensive puppy (as our prices do change occasionally). Buyer's replacement puppy will receive the same guarantee as the previous puppy (dog). If Buyer refuses to receive a puppy replacement, and Buyer decides to keep the puppy (dog), Buyer acknowledges that they will be treating the puppy (dog) at their own expense and the Breeder will not be responsible for any cost whatsoever. Buyer will not receive a puppy replacement unless the original puppy (dog) is surrendered to Breeder (the Buyer pays shipping).

The Breeder will not be responsible for any genetic defects which may have been present in the line from the ancestry and not present in the parents. The quality of our breeding stock is of very high standard but there is always a possibility of defects in any dog, which may occur in even three to four generations later.

The Buyer agrees that if at any time they are unable to keep the puppy (dog) due to a change in their circumstances and are forced to seek another "new" owner for the puppy (dog) or due to any other conceivable reason, then at that time, the Buyer agrees to notify the Breeder in writing by registered mail and telephone. The Breeder has first option of receiving the puppy (dog) as it's "next" new owner before anyone else. Should the Breeder decide to take the puppy (dog), then the Buyer agrees to surrender the puppy (dog) and all registration papers to the Breeder at that time. The Breeder may elect to permanently keep the puppy (dog) or adopt the puppy (dog) out to a new suitable family. Should the Breeder chose not to take the puppy (dog) then the Buyer will then be able to find another suitable family for the puppy (dog).

The Buyer's signature indicates that he/she has reviewed and discussed this contract with Breeder prior to receiving said puppy (dog) and is in full agreement and approval of the above terms and conditions. Buyer agrees to pay all court costs, if the terms of this contract are disregarded and is litigated. Any suit shall be filed and prosecuted in Texas, under Texas law.

This agreement is non-transferable and applies only to the original buyer of the puppy.
